PREFACE

The following texts were copied at the British Museum in 1912-13 and appeared in the American Journal of Semitic Languages, Vols. XXIX and XXXI. This was my first attempt to deal with the "contract" literature at first hand, and my copies have doubtless not escaped this disadvantage, but after further study on the texts I was enabled, during the summer of 1914, to make a fresh collation of all the material, discovering thereby several errors, some of which are scribal, and a few omissions, all of which are indicated below under "Corrigenda." I also found that I had at times indicated some doubtful signs with too much of certainty.

My expressed purpose, when the texts appeared, of following them with name lists and interpretation of contents has been delayed by other demands far beyond my expectation. The following analyses, selected translations, date formulae, glossary, and name lists are now offered as a fulfilment, in some measure, of my original intention.

I wish especially to acknowledge my obligations to Dr. E. A. Wallis Budge, Keeper of the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum. It was at his suggestion and with his encouragement and assistance in offering every facility for prosecuting the selection and copying that the work was completed. I am indebted to the other members of the department, Messrs. King and Hall, for their unfailing courtesy. To the American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures I am under obligations for the privilege of reproducing the autographed texts from its plates.

INTRODUCTION

The texts here published belong to the period of the so-called Hammurapi dynasty: 2225–1926 B.C. However, in a number of cases the date assignment is wholly dependent on the degree of similarity with the documents that are specifically dated. The generous amount of work done on the “contracts” of this period, especially such a complete and thoroughgoing compendium as M. Schorr’s Altbabylonische Rechtsurkunden (1913), makes any general introduction to this class of literature superfluous.

ANALYSES AND SELECTED TRANSLATIONS

I. Crop rental of land: Nos. 1–7, 10–12, 15–16, 48, 52, 57–60, 75–76, 82.

1. The amount of rental is stipulated, (1) as so much grain per acreage in Nos. 2, 3, 7, 11, 15, 16, 48, 59, 60; (2) simply as so much grain in Nos. 4, 5, 6, 12, 57, 58, 82; (3) as a share of one-third in Nos. 1 and 10 (the latter applying to a field of standing grain, but also including a field of untilled land at the same rate, but on a three-year basis. (4) In Nos. 75 and 76 the rental is determined by the produce of the adjoining fields.

2. The rent is specified as due at harvest in Nos. 2, 4, 6, 7, 15, 16, 48, 59, 60, 75, 76.

3. The place of payment is stipulated in Nos. 1–7, 12, 15, 48, 52, 57–60, 82.

4. In addition to the regular rental, a tithe for religious feasts, usually feasts of Shamash, is included in Nos. 2–4, 6, 10–12, 15, 50, 57, 58, 60.

5. The term of rental is one year except in case of untilled land (Nos. 10, 12), where it is for three years.

6. Preparation of soil for the next crop is stipulated in Nos. 15, 16, 59, and 75.

7. Irrigation privileges are mentioned in Nos. 1 and 11.

8. Renters in partnership divide their share equally in Nos. 15 and 16 and make equal outlay (No. 15).

9. The field must be returned in good order (No. 48).

No. 15 is typical.

Translation.—"One-half Gan of land in the region of the outlet(?), beside the field of R., on its front side is (the property of) A., the field of B., priestess of Shamash, daughter of I. From B., daughter of I., son of I., owner of the field, W., son of N., and N., slave of I. in partnership (rented) a field for cultivation. Each shall make outlay equally. At harvest time after having prepared the soil (again) for sowing, they shall measure out the income of the field in the gate of Malgum, at the rate of eight Gur of grain, standard of Shamash, per Gan of land. The remainder they shall divide equally. At three feasts of Shamash they shall provide one piece of choice meat, twenty measures of meal, and one measure of strong drink. Done in the presence of the gods Shamash and Aia, on the 20th day of Tammuz in the 12th year of Ammisaduga the king."

II. House rent contracts: Nos. 8, 9, and 71. The term is for one year, for a money rent; in addition the renter may be asked to pay a tithe for three feasts of Shamash (Nos. 8 and 9). A small payment is made in advance in No. 8. No. 8 furnishes characteristic formulae.

Translation.—"The house of I., from I., its owner, K. son of I. rented, for a price, for one year. The rent for one year is $4\frac{1}{2}$ shekels of silver. Of this stated sum 2 shekels have been received. At three feasts of Shamash, three measures of fine(?) oil(?) he shall provide." (Names of witnesses and the date follow.)

III. Notes covering loans: (1) of grain to be repaid at harvest, (No. 18); the transaction is between two women and the witnesses are also women; (2) of money (Nos. 30, 37-39). No. 30 is a note for a loan from the palace, receipted and canceled.

Translation.—"Five shekels of silver, weight of Shamash, part of the price from the income of the flocks of the palace, department of U., father of the people, which in the 13th year of Ammisaduga the king, M. and I. and the sons of N. received from I. son of S.; repaid by M. and I. and the sons of N. and received by I. son of S., in the presence of two witnesses, on the 18th day of Tammuz in the 15th year of Ammisaduga the king."

In No. 38 interest is stipulated and the note, which has three signers, is payable at the convenience of the borrowers. No. 37 is secured by a mortgage.

IV. Hire of laborers: Nos. 17 and 47.

Translation (No. 17).—"S., son of P., of his own accord, in the temple, hired out to S. by the month. He shall receive $\frac{1}{3}$ shekel per month. From his wages he has received $\frac{1}{3}$ shekel. On three days of the month he shall be free, food and drink (provided)." (Witnesses and date follow.)

No. 47 deals with the hire of three harvest hands for one month and three days. The reward of one is to be 3 shekels, while the other two receive 30 measures of grain.

V. Purchase contracts: These apply to fields Nos. 28, 43-45, 55, and 61; an orchard No. 49; undeveloped homesteads Nos. 26 and 27; a house No. 40; a separation wall No. 80; slaves (males) Nos. 46 and 63; female slaves Nos. 39, (67), 74, and 120 (in No. 74 the original owner of the slave accepts a mortgage stipulating that the slave's clothing may not be seized by the purchaser in case of foreclosure); a young bull No. 33; a draught ox No. 62; in No. 73 the object of the purchase has been effaced. No. 72 deals with the price paid for a bride by her future mother-in-law to the bride's mother. All the parties to this transaction were women, including the witnesses; even the scribe was a woman.

Translation (No. 46).—"A slave D., by name, from S., son of B., his owner, I., son of S., purchased. The full price of 17 shekels of silver, standard of Marduk, be weighed out. His heart is satisfied. The transaction is closed. Henceforth one against the other, they shall not make complaint." (They take oath by Shamash, Marduk, and Samsuiluna. Witnesses follow.)

VI. The assignment of property: Nos. 13, 14, 22 (23a), 24, 25, 34, 36, 41, 51, 56, 64-66, 68-70, 78, and 81. No. 13 is a quit-claim deed.

Translation.—"Deed concerning the house, field, orchard, female or male slave, ox or sheep. As many as there are or may be, from straw to gold (i.e., from least to greatest), S., daughter of S., will not institute legal proceedings to recover." (Witnesses follow.)

No. 36 is a quit-claim division of property.

Translation.—"In the presence of the emblem of Shamash, the sons of I., laid claim to their (undivided) estate, (saying) 'I have received one-third,' 'by reckoning have I received' (it); brother against brother shall not make complaint." (They take oath by Shamash, Marduk, and Apil-Sin the king. Witnesses follow.)

No. 14 deals with a division of property. "Three parcels of land, one female slave, and four Gin of wool are the inheritance of S. (which by the division) with H. and A. he received" (the succeeding section of the transaction is obliterated).

No. 78 records a similar division of property and a quit-claim deed executed in the reign of Hammurapi.

No. 22 (23a) records the settlement of an estate established by suit at law.

Translation.—"Document concerning field, house, female and male slave, property, and assigns, inclusive of all that A., a priestess, daughter of W., possesses. A., son of N., will not contest nor offer complaint against her. The judges of Babylon, Sippar, and Gagum gave judgment in the temple of Shamash; A., son of N., is excluded. Her inheritance wherever she desires she shall dispose of." (The oath, witnesses, and date follow.)

No. 24 is a deed of gift of real estate given by a mother to her daughter, in the reign of Sin-muballit.

No. 25 is a bequest of two parcels of real estate and a slave, made over by a father to his daughter, with the proviso that as long as the father lives he shall control the slave and receive his support from the property; and, after the death of the daughter, her brother shall become its administrator and dispose of it to their stepdaughters.

No. 70 is a bequest of two parcels of ground and an orchard, given by a sister to her brother, and providing for a fixed annuity for the sister during her lifetime, with a clause involving forfeiture of the entire property if the annuity is not provided as stipulated.

No. 41 corresponds closely to No. 70. A mother assigns her estate equally to her two sons, with provision for an annuity. Failure to pay this involves forfeiture of their inheritance.

No. 51 records a bequest of real estate.

No. 69 adds to a similar bequest the support of a priestess.

Nos. 64, 68, and 81 certify the settlement of estates.

In No. 34 the settlement is established by the action of the courts.

No. 42 records a bestowal of property for the care of a sick person.

Nos. 65 and 66 are wills.

Translation (No. 65).—"From B., daughter of S., N., daughter of S., is the heir of her estate after her. One-half Gan of land in Mahanim" (located by adjoining property; here occurs a break in the tablet, followed by the oath and witnesses).

No. 56 records the life-lease of a house to a woman.

VII. Miscellaneous:

No. 21 is an assignment of a debt from father to son: "Certain loans of money from different individuals, A. makes over to A., his son. The creditors may not institute legal proceedings nor may they seize A (the father) (for debt)."

No. 29 is a receipt of sale.

No. 31 is a suit at law to determine the validity of a sale of property.

No. 32 is a business letter: "The field to be set in order as much as they did and the field of sesame which they prepared, they are responsible for it. From thy tablet and the estate of my father before me report. I have commanded you. Grain, every particle of it, from the official for the palace—the official shall give grain. Concerning everything belonging to Marduk, dispatch it with Nabi-Sin to Babylon. From the month Siwan concerning (these) my minor affairs they are responsible. The palace has exalted you, (but) from the 4th day till now the report of the work as much as they did and the field of sesame they prepared, you have not sent. Nabi-Sin came to Babylon, your report or complaint you did not send. Now I am dispatching Nabi-Sin to you. Go down with him to the field."

No. 50 is partly effaced; as it stands it is a mere register of names.

No. 54 is a declaration of adoption.
